Run raises $900 for pregnancy center

Thursday, Nov. 10, 2005

by Ingrid Mezo

Participants in the Catoctin Pregnancy Center's first annual 5K Run/Walk for life and Mile Fun Run raised $900 for the center.

Managed and staffed by volunteers, the nonprofit organization helps families with crisis pregnancies, according to a press release. The center assists women in all steps of the pregnancy. It continues to help families in need with young children up to 5 years of age by supplying formula, diapers, cribs, clothing and counseling.

The race, held Oct. 15, was dedicated to the memory of the Rev. Darin Didier, a young priest who died Sept. 6 following a lengthy struggle with cancer, according to a press release. Didier attended Mount St. Mary's Seminary, and was ordained to the priesthood June 4. He was an avid runner himself and served as chaplain of the university track team while at the seminary. Didier also ministered to the center while at the seminary.

Mount St. Mary’s hosts Hunger Awareness Meal

Mount St. Mary's University will host its annual Hunger Awareness Meal at in the university café.

The meal is part of the university's efforts to support Hunger Awareness Month demonstrate how the world consumes food in different locations, according to Students will also be able to donate a meal from their meal plan, with proceeds Thurmont Food Bank and Frederick soup kitchen.

The meal represents the three major divisions of the world, with students separated into three categories. Students in the first world category represent 10 percent of the world's population and will receive a full meal, including a salad, main dish and dessert. Students in the second world category represent 25 percent of the world's population and will eat beef and juice. Students falling into the third world category represent 65 percent of the world's population and will only be given rice and water.

Last year, 50 students and seminarians participated in the meal, and more than 100 donated a meal from their meal plan.

In order to show his support for the meal, Sean Adams, director of campus activities, will fast for the 100 hours prior to the start of the meal, subsisting only on water and vitamins. Adams plans to raise additional money for the hungry through people who agree to sponsor a meal.

Adams hopes that by making his fast public, he will inspire people to think about hunger around the world. Adams will be in Patriot Hall collecting donations from noon to 1 p.m. today, Friday, Monday and Tuesday.
